About the Gallery

The Odd Gallery is an Artist-run Centre located in the Klondike Institute of Art and Culture (KIAC), which is operated by the Dawson City Arts Society, a nonprofit organization whose mandate is to create an environment for the advancement of the arts in the Yukon Territory. The Gallery's programming features 8-10 annual exhibitions of territorial, national, and international contemporary visual art. The Gallery also presents artist talks with exhibiting and visiting artists along with a wide array of year-round outreach programming and events.

Call For Donations

The Odd Gallery is seeking donations of original artwork from interested artists for our annual fundraiser Art Auction. The auction will take place during the Yukon Riverside Arts Festival to be held on the Discovery Days weekend, August 14-17, 2008 in Dawson City, Yukon. Participating artists will receive 50% of the selling price of their artwork and the remaining 50% will go to the Odd Gallery as a Donation. (Artists are welcome to donate additional amounts if they choose.) Artists will receive a charitable tax receipt for the amount donated to the Odd Gallery. Artwork should be Framed (if necessary) or matted and shrink-wrapped.

To Continue with the Success of Last Year's Event......the Auction will take place (weather permitting) outdoors at the Front Street Gazebo on Saturday August 16th. Also, in order to make for a slightly shorter event, the Gallery is asking donating artists to only submit one piece for auction, and the Gallery may cap the Auction at 25 – 30 artworks.
